My wife just sold her last Rebel. Been a journey of hers since 1991. Over time, she has owned 2 1986 rebels and one 2005. Found an old OEM owners manual from one of the 1986s while cleaning up during quarantine if anyone needs one for their bike, let me know. Free to good home.

I have a good amount of experience working on cars but not motorcycles and not to particularly on carburetors. Its does not have an airfilter on it yet. I was wondering what this might be? Im thinking off the bat timing or carb rebuild.
