Law and ethics go hand in hand. Law, however, is enforced based on written principles and regulations by parties who have been given the power to do so, such as magistrates or judges. Teachers are responsible to know their own rights and legal obligations as well as those of their students and schools.

Ethics is not just a collection of principles and laws, its almost an art, in that you have to think critically to be able to see something from all angles and nobody has time to do that AND deal with annoyingly difficult text. It includes the APA as well as NASP ethical codes and examples in each section of the application of codes which is nice.
