The idea with buy-and-hold investments is that they’re supposed to bring you passive income—money that comes in without your active involvement. But passive income can turn into “active expense” fast if you set yourself up with a property that needs a lot of maintenance. Student and vacation rentals are common high-maintenance properties.

5 Things to Avoid in a Buy-and-Hold Investment Property

Not all buy and hold investors believe in EMH. The buy and hold strategy also aligns with value investing. Value investors often employ a fundamental analysis approach. They will attempt to find stocks in companies where the price is—in their opinion—low compared to the fundamental value of the company.
