Let It Come Down is a superior book to The Sheltering Sky in terms of plotting and momentum. Themes of alienation and aloneness pervade one as in the other. Where it is inferior is in its somewhat detective story-like plot, or in the feeling of unsteadiness one gets about the "theft" situation in which Dyar eventually finds himself.

CRITIQUE :: Let It Come Down by Paul Bowles

This album is among the Top 3 essential Spiritualized albums, next to 'Lazer Guided Melodies' and 'Ladies & Gentlemen.', 'Let It Come Down' is a masterwork, and this pressing sounds of sonic brilliance! Get an original first pressing if you can find one (better than Plain Recordings reissues). Every track on this record is a gem in my opinion.
