The Freedom Of The Soul

Freedom means independence of anything outside, and that means that nothing outside itself could work upon it as a cause. The soul is causeless, and from this follow all the great ideas that we have. You cannot establish the immortality of the soul, unless you grant that it is by its nature free, or in other words, that it cannot be acted upon by anything outside.

The concept of freedom resonates deeply in our souls. We enter this world at the start of each incarnation seeking the opportunity to be who we are, and to complete the life plan our soul created while still on the Astral Plane. We crave the freedom to achieve our goals. We come in with high hopes. Things don't always go so smoothly, though.
